Raman has been a valued member of the club for over ten years, having been part of the community even before the course closed for renovations. His long-standing connection to the club means he understands both its history and the importance of creating a safe, welcoming environment for all members and visitors.
He has always appreciated the friendly atmosphere of the clubhouse, the quality of the course, and the dedication of the staff.
Raman is approachable, committed, and always happy to listen, making him a great point of contact for any welfare-related matters.
